Other Committee [illegible] propose) "Collect the facts, suggestions & the means of better utilisation of the funds of the Mosques and Musjids-ida and for effecting improvements in the general Management of these institutions" In the first place I do not see any need for appointing such a Committee. Your Committee [illegible] (Muslim Conference) can not have the right to. The nomination of Govt Officers to Work as Members in their private capacity is inconvenient arrangement. In this case, the Warden and the Sheriff are Muzrai officers in respect of these institutions and they can not obviously be the nominees in their private capacity. There appear to be different views regarding
